

Position of each replicate in euclidean space based on an NMDS

Red circles are 4 clone responses, triangles are centroid positions

Permuted euclidean distance between centroid of 4 individual clones

Red line is average distance of actual measured data

